

"THE BAT IS THE THING . . ." Dell Wilbur of the phillies gives a few tips on equipment to C. A. Hunsucker of King, (seated) and Dean Young of Walnut Cove (right). Hunsucker and Young are the Boys who were the guests of The Stokes Record and Journal-Sentinel at the game in Winston-Salem on April 8. The young man standing is Darold Weatherman of Yow.

Dean Young and C. A. Hunsucker Are the Boys To Attend Baseball Game and Banquet

Two boys, one from Walnut Cove High School, the other from King High School, will see a couple of big league baseball teams in action in Winston-Salem on April 8th.

Mr. R. G. Thomas and Coach Clyde Walker have reported that Dean Young, a senior, is their choice from Walnut Cove High School, and the Stokes county Student Council on last Monday night elected C. A. Hunsucker, a senior from King High School, as their choice from the All Tournament Team, to attend a dinner and the big league ball game when the St. Louis Cardinals will play the Philadelphia Phillies on April 8th in Winston Salem. These two boys are going as the guests of the Stokes Record and the Winston-Salem Journal-Sentinel.

Dean Young, a senior at Walnut Cove High School, is an outstanding athlete as his record testifies. He has played football all four years in High School and is captain of his team, he also plays a good game of both basketball and baseball. Dean is definitely a leader, not only in the field of athletics, but in dramatics and music. He does outstanding work in the glee club of his school in which he is its popular soloist. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Young of Meadows.

C. A. Hunsucker is a senior at King High School, he ranks first in his class of 34 seniors. He has served as class president during the entire 4 years of high school. He has this year served as chairman of the student council's athletic committee.

C. A. has played basketball for two years, leading the scoring this year with his beautiful set shot. He has played baseball for three years, serving as second baseman. He was also placed on the Stokes County High School All County Basketball Team this year.

C. A. plans to attend college next fall, but as yet, has not definitely made up his mind which one he prefers.

32 Northwest N.C. Youngsters See Cards-Phillies Game Today

The Journal and Sentinel will be host to 32 Northwest North Carolina boys and girls when the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies play an exhibition game at Southside Park at 2 p.m. today.

Fourteen newspapers in the area are co-operating with the Journal and Sentinel in bringing the students to Winston-Salem for the major league game.

The 32 boys and girls will be entertained at a luncheon at 11:45 a.m. and then will go to the ball park where they will be photographed with some of the players before the game begins.

Frank Spencer, Journal sports editor, and Carlton Byrd, Sentinel sports editor, will accompany the group.

Vinegar Bend Mizell, former Winston-Salem Cardinal left-hander, will start the game for the St. Louis team. Mizell will be starting pitcher in the opening game of the regular season against Pittsburgh on April 15, according to St. Louis Manager Eddie Stanky.

Russ Meyer will get the starting assignment today for the Phillies, it was announced by Manager Eddie Sawyer.

Other baseball stars to take part in today's game include Stan Musial, Enos Slaughter, Eddie Waitkus and Red Schoendienst.

Newspapers co-operating with The Journal and Sentinel and the names of students who will see the contest are:

Thomasville Tribune — James Eden of Mills Home and a guest.

North Wilkesboro Journal-Patriot — Tommy Hardin of Mount Pleasant High School and Emily Somers of Wilkes Central High School.

Mount Airy News—Bobby Tyndall and a guest.

Mocksville Enterprise — Carolyn Ferebee and Larry Foster.

Mount Airy Times—Jerry Nester and a guest.

Alleghany News, Sparta—R. C. Royal and Norma Jean Edwards both of Sparta.

Madison Messenger — Josephine Cox and Opal Grace Sharp, both of Madison, and Jack Crews and Buddy Martin, both of Mayodan.

Leaksville News — Jimmy Matthews and Jerry Warren.

Danbury Reporter—Billy Barr of King and Coy Collins of Francisco.

Stokes Record—Dean Young of Walnut Cove and C. A. Hunsucker of King.

Skyland Post, West Jefferson—Carson Halse of Virginia-Carolina and Ima Griffiths of Nathan's Creek.

Yadkin Herald—Bobby Holcomb and Darrell Weatherman.

Yadkin Ripple—Betty Moxley of Boonville and Robert Trivette of Yadkinville.

Elkin Tribune—Sonny Daye and Joe Clay Everidge, both of Jonesville, and J. L. Lowe Jr. of Elkin and a guest.